A. You want to know what you can and cannot do in the museum. Look at the picture and complete the sentences with 'either ... or ...' or 'neither ... nor ...'.

- We can go to (1.) either Hall 1 (2.) or Hall 2.
- We can take (3.) either a lift (4.) or an escalator to go to the second floor.
- We can (5.) neither eat (6.) nor drink in Hall 1.
- We can (7.) neither take photos (8.) nor run in Hall 2.
- We can watch the film at (9.) either 2 p.m. (10.) or 3 p.m.
- We can (11.) neither sit on the sedan chairs (12.) nor touch the exhibits.
- We can (13.) neither walk (14.) nor chase when you take escalators.

B. Look at the menu. Complete the conversation with 'either ... or ...' or 'neither ... nor ...'.

Macy: What can we have for dinner tonight?

Julie: You can choose (1.) either Set A (2.) or Set B.

Macy: What food is in Set A?

Julie: First, you can have (3.) either salad (4.) or soup.
Then, you can have (5.) either beef curry (6.) or chicken curry.

Macy: Curry is too spicy for me! I can have (7.) neither beef curry (8.) nor chicken curry. What food is in Set B?

Julie: First, you can have (9.) either soup (10.) or cold noodles. Then, you can have (11.) either sashimi (12.) or sushi.

Macy: Oh ... I can have (13.) neither sashimi (14.) nor sushi because I don't like Japanese food!

Julie: Then you can choose (15.) neither Set A (16.) nor Set B!
We can (17.) either ask for another menu (18.) or go to another restaurant.
