I had such a bad day today!

My alarm didn't work and I got (1.) up late. I asked Mum to drive me to school, but her car broke (2.) down on the way! I decided to take the bus, but no bus came. I finally gave (3.) up waiting for the bus and took a taxi to school. It was so expensive!

There was a Maths test today. I couldn't figure (4.) out how to do the calculations and I've mixed (5.) up the numbers. I felt so upset after I handed (6.) in my test paper. I even forgot to write (7.) down my name! My friend Joyce tried to cheer me (8.) up, but I still couldn't calm (9.) down after a long time.

B. Correct the mistakes in the diary entry.

18 May, Saturday

Uncle Ben and I dropped away to meet Aunt Jane at an elderly home today. She rushed into the waiting room and was happiness to see us. Aunt Jane was lonely and wanted to talk. She sat out and said she was worried about her healthy. Uncle Ben listened to her with a lot of patient. He said it's important to care in old people. We're lucky to be strong and healthy. Old people need our time and supportive.

I think Uncle Ben is very kindness. I want to be like him when I grow out. I feel happy when I give out my things to people who need them. It's good to help people who are poor and facing difficult in life.
