Class: 6A Name: _____ () Date: _____

A. Irene is talking to her friend James about secondary school. Complete their conversation.

anxious	caring	cheerful	considerate	generous
loving	nervous	patient	shy	thoughtful

Irene: What's wrong, James? You look worried.

James: I'm just (1.) _____ anxious _____ about joining secondary school. Everything is going to be so new there.

Irene: You're right. It's going to be different, but we must be (2.) _____ cheerful _____ about it. Good things always happen when you smile.

James: That's probably true. But I'll miss the (3.) _____ caring _____ teachers in primary school. They take such good care of us.

Irene: I agree. I like my class teacher, Mrs Leung. She never scolds anyone or hurts our feelings. She's very (4.) _____ considerate _____.

James: I'll miss my teacher Mr Lee, too. He's so (5.) _____ generous _____. He gave me a lovely storybook for doing well in my studies.

Irene: My friend Janice is going away. We're both so fond of each other. I'll miss her warm hugs and her (6.) _____ loving _____ friendship.

James: Is she your best friend?

Irene: Yes, she is. She's so (7.) _____ thoughtful _____. She thinks about other people a lot and is careful about other people's feelings.

James: Yes, I know. She's also very (8.) _____ patient _____. She is always calm and never gets angry.

Irene: That's right. I don't think I'll ever make a good friend again. I'm a (9.) _____ shy _____ person and I'm not very good at making new friends. I get (10.) _____ nervous _____ when I talk to new people.

James: Don't worry. We'll make some friends together in our new school.
