

2C NEPOMUCENO REANNE CHRISTY ARANDA

Ben's Visit to the Countryside

Today, Ben goes to the countryside with his class teacher and his classmates. They walk up a hill and see the beautiful view. "Wow! It is nice!" they said.

Ben sees a big mango tree. He likes eating mangoes very much, so he walks there. He sits under the tree and starts to draw the beautiful view in front of him. He draws hills, flowers and clouds. He is happy with what he draws.

Suddenly, a mango drops on his head. 'Ouch!' he said. It feels a bit painful, but he is happy because he can eat the mango.

In the end, he takes the mango home and shares it with his mum. 'It is so sweet!' his mum said.

