Yesterday was an unforgettable day! I still feel happy now!

Yesterday I woke up at home with a small banner with 'Happy B-DAY' written on it. I did not realize why it was there, so I went to school directly. At school, my classmates shouted 'Happy Birthday!' and even my teacher smiled at me.

On my way home, I saw the banner and Mum. She said, 'We're going to Karson's home. Come on! Dress up quickly.' Then, I realized a birthday party was just getting started!

In Karson's house, three of my best friends, Karson, Cyrus and Jaden, rushed to me and said, 'Happy Birthday!' Then, they pulled me to Karson's bedroom and played video games such as Minecraft, Splatoon 2 and Among U.S. We were happy and joyful.

Suddenly, someone turned off the lights. It was too dark inside the room, but I saw some lights between the gap in the door. I saw a cake and some candles. They all sang a happy birthday song to me.

What a wonderful birthday party! I hope I will have such a happy birthday again next year. I could not stop thinking about my birthday party even on my way home.
